Electrical Contractors

Are you planning to do new electrical installations?

Are you busy doing or have recently done electrical alterations / upgrades?

Do you need assistance to ensure that the installation meets with various electrical standards and codes?

The WCAEIA is an Approved Inspection Body, who are referees and not players.

We can assist you to ensure:

- * that work done complies with the Occupational Health and Safety Act 85 / 1993 and most recent Wiring Installation Regulations.
- * the Certificate of Compliance is completed in it's entirety.
- * your clients' peace of mind.
- * no "come-backs" later wich includes double-jeopardy clause
- * that the "happy letter" system used on large electrical housing developments is indeed a happy letter.
- * On the job training for electrical workers.
